PERONNE IS IN FLAMES: ART WORKS DESTROYED

German Dispatch Says Fire Threatens to Wipe Out Historic French City.

GERMAN GREAT HEADQUARTERS (via Berlin), August 8, and London, August 9.-Since yesterday the famous old French city of Peronne has been under French artillery fire, resulting in a great conflagration, which threatens to wipe it ont. Already the fine collection of paintings of Italian and Flemish masters has been destroyed by shells which landed squarely in the city hall, where the most valuable art objects from the museum had been housed for protection.

In addition to the paintings which were torn to shreds the shells destroyed unreplacable collections of medieval Germanic silver and semi-precious stonework, Celtic coins dating from the time of the Roman invasion and medallions Houses in some streets have been reduced to ashes. It is considered doubtful whether Peronne's celebrated wood houses in the late Gothic style and the Cathedral

"The country is suffering from inefficiency induced by intoxicants," declared Most Rev. James J. Keane, Archbishop of Dibuque, who preached the sermon. "We have altogether too much crime, poverty, misery and sin as the consequence of liquor," said the speaker. Picturing the many evils of drink in all their phases he said that dfink is the great sorrow of all centers of the country. "The per capità consumption of alcoholic liquors steadily increases not withstanding all our efforts," said Archbishop Keane. "But we know that if every man in America would become a total abstainer the most serious social problem would be no more. Then the most threatening menace to our posterity would be almost negligible. This is not rhethoric, it is cold truth."

The speaker laid stress on the change of the will in the individual man as the solution of R. Mills Silby, was a feature of the service.
